

PHS MUSIC/ DRAMA BOOSTER CLUB
January 7, 2010 Minutes

Call to Order: Kim Carlson, President, called the meeting to order at 6:35 p.m. in the Band Room.

President's Report: Introductions were made.

Minutes: Beth Linvill presented the November 12, 2009 minutes. The minutes were read and approved.

Treasurer's Report: Kathleen Kawakami reported that we are in the black. See separate report.

Band: The Winter Concert in December went well. There was a good crowd. Everyone is enjoying the posting of the songs on youtube. The cookie dough fundraiser was very easy and we make $3400.00. We appreciate Karen Potts organizing this fundraiser. Jazz Band will be playing on January 26 at 5:45 for the Pioneer HS Freshman Recruitment night. Also, Jazz Band is scheduled for the CMEA competition at West Valley College at 9:15 am on February 5th. Wind Ensemble, Jazz Band, and "S" Band are currently working on music for the Big Band Dance which is scheduled for February 6th from 7:00pm to 10:00 pm. Tickets are $20.00. Student account information regarding the cost of the cruise and passport information went home yesterday.

Choir: Jeremy Harris was unable to attend. The Holiday Choir Concert in December went well. The Valentine Concert is scheduled for February 11 at 7:30 in the PAC. Choir will be attending the CMEA Choir Festival at West Valley College on March 26th.

Drama: Steve Dini reported that the 1st semester went well. Family and friends enjoyed the "Jungle Book" show on Dec. 16th. "Harvey" was successful with big crowds. The profit was over $2400.00. "Crazy for You" is the Spring Musical, with performances during the last week of April and the first week of May. Steve and Jeremy will be holding workshops at lunch on Monday, Jan 11th and Tues, Jan. 12th to get ready for the auditions. Auditions for this play will be in January 27-28 from 7:00- 10:00 pm. Sue Dini will continue to teach a free weekly tap dance lessons on Mondays at 6:00 pm to get ready for this play. Pioneer's radio station (KMTG 89.3 FM) broken transmitter has been repaired, and Steve is still coordinating when it can be replaced. "Mama Mia", "A Tribute to Jersey Boys" and "A Tribute to Glee" will be performed for the Freshman Orientation on May 6th. The Glue Factory is considering doing "White Christmas" for December 2, 3, and 4, 2010. Also, they are thinking about doing "Nunsense" as well. "Brighton Beach Memoirs" will be scheduled as an early fall play. In addition, Steve is also doing auditions for "Bye Bye Birdie" at Leland.

Administrator's Report: Brian Thompson encouraged everyone to go to the 7:00 parent meeting tonight, where administrators will be discussing the climate survey. Brian said there was a good turnout for the PSAT presentation for juniors and their families last night. He encouraged senior parents to attend the FAFSA night on Wed. Jan 13th at 6:00pm in the PAC where financial aid for college students will be discussed. In addition, on Feb 22nd from 7:00-10:00pm in the PAC, the group "Cash for College" will help families complete their FAFSA forms.

General Booster Club Business:

Old Business: Steve and Ken are getting one last bid for the projector and boom box that were stolen out of the PAC this summer. Their worth was $10,000.00. If we get a replacement, Journey Church has offered to mount it for free.

New Business: Wendy Dorn has volunteered to try to put together a Music/Drama Booster website that will be part of the Pioneer High website. It will contain general information such as contact information, minutes, membership forms, and separate information regarding the happenings of Drama, Choir, and Band. We will let you know when it is up and running. Thank you Wendy!
